

Create your own Adventure Comic

A great comic doesn't just happen - comic book creators start with an outline so they know exactly what story to tell and how to draw it. We'll build our outline by answering WHO, WHAT, WHEN, WHERE, and HOW questions.

WHO is the hero of our story?

My hero's name(s): _____

Draw your hero or heroes in the box.

How old are they? _____

What do they wear? _____

What is one thing special about your hero? What makes them happy?

WHAT problem or challenge does our hero face?

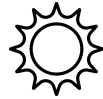

Has your hero lost something special, discovered a mystery to solve, or need to help a friend? Maybe they just want to tell a joke or make someone laugh. It's up to you!

WHERE and WHEN does the story take place?

The location of a story is called the setting. The setting could be at home or school, on a train, under the sea or anywhere you can imagine.

What year in history is it? _____

Is the setting real or pretend? Inside or outside? . Night or day?

Draw your setting below.

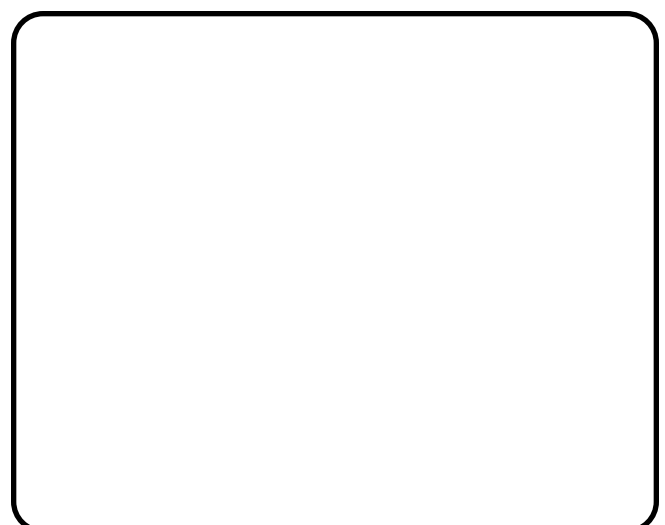

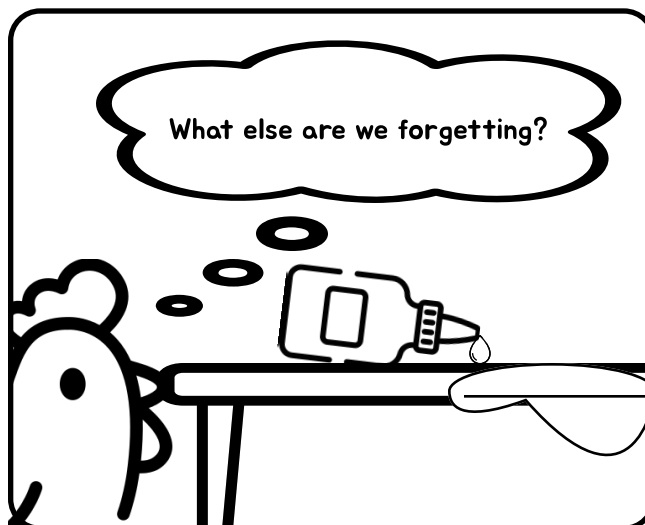

HOW will our hero solve their problem?

What happens first? Who will help your hero? Then what happens in the middle? How does it end?
