Dinosaur Craft

Start by gluing the body parts together with the following instructions:

- Use a sharpie to draw the eye on the eye base cutout, and then glue the eye onto the head.
- Optional: Draw a mouth and nose onto the dinosaur.
- Glue the spot cutouts to the body.
- Glue the toenail cutouts along each of the long sides of the leg cutouts.
- Glue the spikes onto the dinosaur's back.

Take the leg cutouts and roll them into cylinder shapes, and secure them with glue or tape. Cut a 1 cm slit on the left and right sides of the legs, making sure the toenails are at the bottom.

Once the glue has dried, slide the dinosaur body into the slit that was cut into the legs.
